Welcome to Harborview

Walk to town and the library from this home with wonderful spaces for family living and entertaining.

Enjoy an enviable location and abundant natural light at this window-filled, central Westport Colonial where you can catch a shuttle bus right down the block for a quick ride to the train station. The stage for easy living is set in a bright and spacious foyer which welcomes arrivals and leads to the open floor plan uniting the main level.

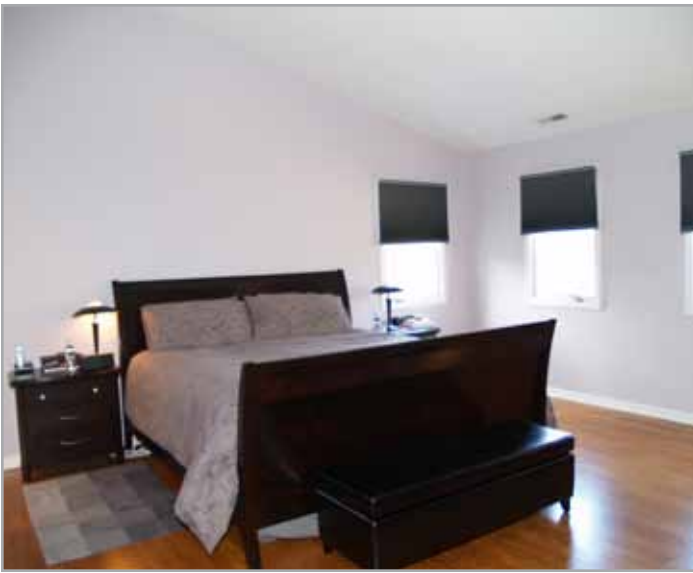

With the touch of a button, add rich ambiance from speakers throughout the main floor, master bedroom and two decks.

Dinner with family and friends will be picture perfect in this formal dining room with solid oak, random width floors, crown molding, chair rail, and three casement windows letting in sunny warmth or glimpses of a starry sky.

A dramatic two-story vaulted ceiling graces the living room which is finished out with hardwood floors and a marble fireplace. Two sets of glass doors provide easy access to a deck overlooking the back yard. Between the living room and family room, a pocket door provides the flexibility for open flow or separate space as desired

A hall bath and laundry closet are conveniently located with access to two additional bedrooms for children or guests.

Recharge and renew in this master suite kept light and bright with a vaulted ceiling and hardwood floors. An adjacent sitting room and spa-like master bath with Jacuzzi complete this spacious retreat.

Additional comfortable accommodations are found on the finished, walk-out lower level. With a full bath, exercise area and playroom, this space offers the option for a nanny or in-law suite.
