

Hidden Glen

Escape to a luxurious private haven on over 2 secluded, park-like acres. This stately Colonial was originally designed and built by Michael Heine. In 2007, it was completely renovated and expanded by Peter Cadoux. Crafted by two such respected and admired architects, this spectacular estate's fine provenance is evident in every detail. Featuring a grand master suite wing, two home offices, home theatre, pool and manicured grounds, prepare to enjoy a serene slice of heaven on Earth.

Welcome to Hidden Glen

A spectacular foyer greets visitors and showcases Cadoux's sublime architectural gifts.

Arriving along a sun flecked corridor of mature trees, a grand reveal creates a dramatic first impression and the realization that you've arrived into the comfortable embrace of complete luxury. A series of graceful curves repeat in a soft rhythm of form through the vaulted portico and fan transom window beneath a wide arched entranceway to curved grand staircase.

Sunlight floods through French doors into the formal rooms creating a light and breezy ambiance

An array of architectural details create refined formal rooms and include custom dental molding, wainscoting and decorative medallions. Elegant columns flank wide entranceways like discreet stewards. The stately dining room opens onto a beautiful sunroom with a travertine marble floor. With the French doors opened onto the deck overlooking the pool, summer entertaining flows seamlessly through the formal rooms to the deck and beyond.

In this bright and open plan, a carefully considered selection of choice materials and finishes defines each transition with noble distinction.

Pegged oak random width floor boards, a rough hewn beam mantel over a rustic hearth and richly stained dark cherry raised paneled cabinets create a warm and cozy ambiance that hints at a country kitchen. But with soaring vaulted beam ceilings, granite countertops and professional appliances, the spacious suite of rooms that include a dining area and spacious butler's pantry packed with amenities are decidedly regal.

Another distinctly warm and majestic suite showcasing fine cherry custom cabinetry can be found in the library wing. Fine walnut floors create a stunning impression as do the vaulted wood paneled ceilings and floor to ceiling river stone fireplace. Sunny dormer windows, and French doors opening onto a private porch keep this handsome space airy and bright and provides yet another area ideal for reading and quiet contemplation.

Every sparkling facet of the magnificent master suite, from the vaulted ceilings to the richly veined marble or wood floors is absolutely exquisite.

Centered under the cross beams of the soaring vaulted ceiling in the master bedroom is a majestic custom fireplace. The wood framed mirror above the mantel is actually a cleverly disguised flat screen that transforms into a framed televised image at the flick of a switch.

The kingly bath is crowned in a barrel vaulted ceiling that follows the curve of twin fan windows. A custom mosaic rug pattern and sparkling translucent onyx molding accents the enveloping marble. Every desirable amenity, from spa tub, steam shower, private water closet and vanity, provides spa-like comfort.

Entertain in style!

Red velvet curtains frame a state-of-the-art movie screen and plush theater seating set the stage for a private screening in your media room. An adjoining butler's pantry is at hand for a full range of refreshments.

Also adjoining the media room is her home office. Palladium windows invite light to flood the vaulted space with light and frame gorgeous garden views on 3-sides.

A spacious wrap around deck with grand double stair overlooking a Gunite pool and stone patio sets an elegant foundation for luxurious backyard bliss. Fountains spray four refreshing arcs over the Gunite pool and an arched trellis gateway echos the home's fan windows.
