Welcome to Tree Tops

As you enter the living room, to the left of the foyer, you are captivated by the gorgeous nature views from the walls of glass in this spacious room. The inner fieldstone wall has a fireplace at the far end that is open on the side as well as the front. Perfect for large gatherings or intimate conversation, this room opens to the dining room.

The formal dining room, with its lovely stone floor, has a slider that opens to a spacious flagstone deck with panoramic views of the property convenient for outdoor cooking/dining. The fireplace helps create a wonderful ambience for your dinner parties or a romantic dinner for two. A doorway from the dining room takes you to the kitchen.

The eat-in kitchen, with its tile flooring and oak cabinets, offers plenty of cabinet and counter space for all your meal preparation. A charming Dutch door, by the breakfast area opens to a small porch and steps to the driveway. The breakfast area has a wall of glass that overlooks the pool.

Off the dining room is a hall to the bedroom wing. At the far end of the hall on the left is the master suite with a bedroom, full bath and walk-in closet. Sliders open to the stone deck, where you might want to enjoy your first cup of coffee on a summer morning. A wall of glass offers serene nature views. There are three other family bedrooms in this wing and a hall bath.

The first bedroom on the left has a walk-in closet that connects with the walk-in closet in the master bedroom. The current owner is using this room as a home office. Sliders open to the flagstone deck contributing to an excellent indoor/outdoor flow to the home.

The first bedroom on the right has its own bath. The bedroom at the end of the hall on the right has its own door to the hall bath.

For outdoor living you can relax on the deck or at the pool. This home is perfect retreat for today's living or entertaining. If you live in the City, it could be the ideal "Get Away" in the country.
